

★★★★ PATRIOT LEAGUE ★★★★★

A Fictional Roster set designed by Joe Cronin (legendsport on the Delphi Forums) to act as a second league with PLAAAY Games' History Maker Baseball and Century League roster set.

Included in this roster set are eight teams' worth of players, 240 in all with 96 pitchers and 144 hitters. Like the Century League, the players are given a team number from 1-8 that can be used to form default teams. The set can also be used to create a draft league and can be mixed with, or kept separate from the Century League.

Each player in the Patriot League is named after a serviceman who made the ultimate sacrifice in service of his country during the Second World War. This set honors those men, and all the others who have served past & present in the defense of freedom and democracy. Some of the players have been given nicknames to fit them into the historical context of a 1940s-era league in a manner similar to that in the Century League, but most have their actual first names and all have their actual surnames. All branches of the armed forces of the era (Army, Army Air Corps, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard) and most of the (then) 48 states are represented.

Twelve umpires have also been created, and like the players, these cards are named after actual U.S. servicemen who were casualties of the Second World War.

This project was undertaken to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the Normandy invasion on June 6, 1944.

NOTES:

- The players are based on the 1943-44-45 seasons of baseball – the seasons most effected by the war. Consequently the level of offense is somewhat suppressed – most hitters will be average with modest power (though there are some notable exceptions)
- The league-wide batting average can be expected to be in the .245-.255 range with an OPS in the .650-.675 range with pitcher's ERA in the mid to high threes (these estimates are based on limited test play and the data used to create the cards).
- No ballparks are included – there are enough parks included with the Century League to cover the Patriot League as well (or you can create your own, use real life parks from other sets, etc).

CREDITS:

First and foremost, thanks to Keith Avallone for not only creating both the History Maker Baseball game and the Century League rosters, but also graciously supported this project.

Thanks as well go to Al Wilson and Steve Towers whose card templates for the players and umpires (respectively) were used to create the cards themselves.

Please message Joe Cronin (legendsport) @ the Delphi Forums with any corrections/suggestions. Thanks!
