2016 Canadian College Football All-Stars for COLD SNAP Canadian Pro Football Game

The Canadian pro league conducted its annual draft of Canadian college players on May 16, 2016, with players selected in the order listed below. For our college all-star team, we inserted players into the line-up based on draft order. When a position was filled, no more players for that position were selected. Thus, there are a few players who did not make the team, despite being drafted higher than some who did.

No Canadian quarterbacks were drafted this year. The Canadian league's teams have typically preferred to train U.S. college quarterbacks, but the league recently began a program of developing Canadian college quarterbacks by allowing college underclass QBs to attend league training camps for a few weeks in the late spring and early summer.
