

HISTORY MAKER GOLF 2019 Pro National Golf FRINGE Golfers

Courtesy of Christian Reismann, Hamburg Germany, here are an additional 36 “fringe” golfers for the 2019 Pro National Golf card set for HISTORY MAKER GOLF. These cards can be used to expand your Tourney Day stack, or you can conduct separate events aside from the regular card set.

Golfer Name	Age	Nationality	Detail
Barbato, Adelmo	25	Italy	Laser-like approach often sets him up for easy putts.
Batteux, Denis	29	France	Under-sized tee shots has an effect on his GIR, but good touch keeps him competitive.
Broadus, Ryan	29	Ireland	Struggled last few years, looks like more of the same.
Burke, Joe	30	USA	Solid player except for difficulty extracting himself from sand.
Burnett, Dustin	34	USA	“Elevator player,” too good for Q School, but struggles on the tour.
Byrne, Arthur	29	Scotland	Usually finds a way to save par despite often lurching to the green.
Carter, Oscar	28	USA	The personification of “average,” but frequently surprises with “out-of-nowhere” birdies.
Chambers, Jjake	29	USA	Dominated college tour then took a break to finish studies (Masters Degree).
Crowe, Sam	27	New Zealand	Known in PNG circles for his habit of whistling while concentrating.
Day, Harvey	31	England	If he makes the cut, watch out--a streaky player, hot and cold.
Fen, Hu	29	China	Has the talent, if he can control his swing.
Feng, Yin	25	China	Shines on the green, but needs to get there a little more efficiently.
Fox, Bryan	26	Australia	Big hitter from bunkers and tee but sometimes not very accurate.
Gutierrez, Alejandro	29	Venezuela	Head-scratcher example of superior skills combined with routine bad breaks.
Harms, Nico	26	Germany	Easily rattled when adversity strikes, better focus would make him a contender.
Honda, Shinji	26	Japan	Placement pro who many feel could be a major star on the tour some day.
Johnston, Lyle	41	USA	In recent years has found hazards a little too frequently, costing him in the standings.
Kyon, Tae-Yeon	29	South Korea	Incredible touch from fairway with wedge, but often undoes himself with poor putting.
La Berge, Mark	45	Canada	Former major champ in career slump due to nagging effect of years-old injury.
Lee, Darian	28	USA	Has a reputation for bailing himself out of trouble, often remarkably.
Manikas, Nikos	26	Greece	Has made most of career chance despite being at a disadvantage in training conditions.
Milano, Gaspar	28	Argentina	Strong from tee and fairway, not-so-great from rough.
Mills, Tom	27	Ireland	Rarely mis-fires from tee, was among the leaders on the recent EuroTour.
Minnix, Carl	48	USA	Much buzz about his potential transition from touring pro to TV commentator.
Morelli, Gilberto	25	Italy	Youngster with much raw talent, needs time on the tour to blossom.
Murray, Harold	28	USA	Middle-of-the-road in most every skill, but has no glaring weakness in his game.
Newcombe, Alec	27	England	Gifted young player enduring the first slump of his much-lauded career.
No, Chong-Su	35	South Korea	Asian Tour star with eye-popping putting skills, maybe a little late to the PNG party.
Qvist, Johnny	26	Sweden	Hits it long, and then hopes for the best.
Reid, Michael	23	Canada	Collegiate star who’s had rough transition to the pro game; tour card in jeopardy.
Sangsorn, Songram	24	Thailand	Talented kid who has time on his side, still mostly unknown, unproven on tour.
Secada, Julian	32	Spain	Superior putting skills have saved a Top Ten tourney finish or two.
Vera, Camillo	26	Mexico	Least-known personality on PNG tour, and reclusive demeanor doesn’t shed much light.
Vero, Lautaro	27	Spain	Has shown flashes on EuroTour, encouraged to take on PNG competition.
Wells, Craig	38	England	Career path has been marked by lapses in short game.
Yatsuhira, Yuba	32	Japan	Slight build combined with allergy issues put him at a disadvantage.
